Who are we?

We are a group of expert mental health practitioners - Counselling Psychologists, Psychotherapists and Consultant Psychiatrists - qualified to the highest standards. We are independent in our style of working but we share a common passion for therapy and a commitment to emotional wellbeing.

Established in 2006, we have grown to become a reputable network of over thirty clinicians working from Harley Street W1, the City EC2, London Bridge SE1, Canary Wharf E14 and via SKYPE.

“I have just finished going to therapy and wanted to say that the sessions have really helped me understand how to deal with my anxiety on a daily basis…If ever I have further problems, you and your practice would be the first I contact.”
